6. [REDACTED] HEARINGS As requested by Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, accompanied [REDACTED] Office of Personnel; and [REDACTED] in the Office of Finance, to the House Rules Committee hearing on H. R. 13615, a bill amending CIARDS. There was no opposition to the legislation and a one hour open rule was approved. Chairman Edward Hebert (D., La.), of the Subcommittee on Investigations, and Representative Robin Beard (R., R. I.) appeared before the Committee on behalf of the legislation. During the course of the brief presentation, Representative Morgan Murphy (D., Ill.), of the Rules Committee, remarked, based upon his work with the House Select Committee, that the hard working employees of CIA deserve benefits at least in parity with other Federal employees.
